Just a - cross the street from me, A cer - tain girl named Nan - cy Lee, Talk a - bout a lov - ing pair, Now they beat ev - 'ry - thing for fair, Stays at home, all a - lone,
They em brace an - y place,

Thro' the Sum - mer - time, Nan - cy's pa - rents They don't seem to care. Peo - ple call them al - ways go Where the cool - ing breez - es blow, sil - ly boobs For their daf - fy dil - ly moods; Down the bay, far a - way From the heat - ed clime; But At the gate they can't wait, Start in hug - ging there; They why should Nan - cy care? Her sweet-heart's al - ways there. seem to have no fear Of some one hid - ing near.

4 CHORUS

On her ver - an - da they sit ev - ry night, On her ver-an - - da, it's their one de - light; In the ham-mock there they cling, And talk of ev - ry - thing, They puck - er up and puck - er up, And then a - gain they swing. On her ver-an - - da, hap - py all the time, On her ver - an - - da, be - hind the I - vy vine, While they keep the ham - mock sway - ing That old game of love they're playing,

On her ver - an - - da On her ver - da
